Marriage Minute

Have you ever felt crushed in your infirmity or weakness? We all have seasons of life filled with serious difficulties and can relate to this weekend's readings. Whether it is physical illness, financial stress, struggling children, or spiritual desolation, the key for us as married couples is to pull together in adversity, instead of allowing distance to blossom. Here are some suggestions: • Learn to share feelings in a safe way (Worldwide Marriage Encounter and Every Day in Love can teach you!). • Respect that your spouse may not react to the situation the way you do. • Pray together daily. • Be generous with physical affection. • Be eager to help with your spouse's responsibilities when they have a bad day. To tap into more concrete ways to draw close to your spouse, go to www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com

PROJECT CHRYSALIS

Every great grief conceals a great grace. Project Chrysalis is a new Catholic ministry designed to help parents who have lost a child find hope through Sacred Scripture and community, all while adhering to teaching of the Magisterium. While this ministry is not a bereavement group, our mission is to offer support and hope through scripture in a time of transformation. The inaugural meeting will be held on Monday, October 22, 2018 in the St. Luke's Room at Church of the Ascension, 9500 W. 127th St. in Overland Park. For more information, contact Ken or Patty Billinger at 913-634-4210 or email kbillinger@archkck.org. You can also find more information on our website – www.lcapostolate.org/project-chrysalis or on our Facebook page - @projectchrysaliskc. The group is open to parents from all parishes.
