THE STORY OF OUR REDEMPTION

We begin the final week of Lent with these familiar readings. This year, we hear the Passion from the Gospel of Luke. These readings for Palm Sunday and the Passion used to be read on successive Sundays. Now they are combined into a single feast, so that we may see the whole sweep of the glory and the suffering played out. Jesus accepts the adulation of the crowd, the foreshadowing of his glory in the Resurrection. He bids farewell to his disciples in his last Passover, and forgives his tormentors as he dies on the cross. Later this week, we enter the Holy Triduum of Holy Thursday, Good Friday, and Holy Saturday, when the whole story of our redemption will play out once again.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Later this week, the Chrism Mass is celebrated in every cathedral in the world in preparation for the Easter Triduum. Only a bishop can consecrate chrism, pure olive oil infused with rich fragrance, so this liturgy is a sign of the unity of the local Church and the bishop's ministry to all who will be baptized and confirmed in our parishes in the coming year. Chrism is also used in the ordination of priests and bishops and the consecration of new altars. Two other sacramental oils, the unscented olive oil for catechumens and for the sick, will be blessed in the same liturgy and transported carefully to every parish by the beginning of the Triduum.

Remember when Noah's dove returned with the sign of the world's rebirth? The dove carried an olive branch, a pledge that God was breathing the world to life again. Yet olives require human nurture. Olives are inedible unless they are cured by human labor. Olive trees grow on sunny slopes, away from the shade of city walls, so they can only be properly tended, cured, and laboriously pressed in peace time. The Chrism Mass with its olive oils expresses God's deepest desires for us, and our resolve to place our lives in service to God's saving, healing, loving plan.

Marriage Minute

"Holy Week for Marriage" Praise, temptation to despair, indignant questioning from one who does not understand his mission, rejection, and eventually, death; While all of these descriptions certainly apply to our Lord's experience during Holy Week, they also apply to the lived experience of every married couple. St. John Paul II said, "Married couples are a permanent reminder to the Church of what happened on the Cross." Jesus called himself the Bridegroom, and His Bride was the Church, so we can imitate Christ in our marriages when we: • Accept praise from others with humility and thanksgiving to God. • Allow grace to strengthen our hope when we are tempted to despair over financial situations or the choices our children will make. • Choose to courageously witness to the beauty of marriage even though friends or extended family may not understand our vocation. • Forgive generously when we are hurt. For other ways to joyfully witness your marriage, go to www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE ENCOUNTER

For a Christian, marriage is not just a social institution, it is a real supernatural calling. A great sacrament, instituted by Christ. It is a permanent contract that sanctifies in cooperation with Jesus Christ. He fills the souls of husband and wife and invites them to follow him. He transforms their whole married life into an occasion for God's presence on earth. How well are you living out your supernatural calling? A Worldwide Marriage Encounter Weekend can help you explore and answer that question! The next weekend in the Kansas City area will be May 3-5, 2019. For more information, or to apply for a weekend, visit www.wmme4youandme.org, or call/email Tony & Barb Zimmerman at 816-741-4066, tonybarbz@prodigy.net

THE PONTIFICAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

SPECIAL COLLECTION – Pope Francis has asked our parish to support The Pontifical Good Friday Collection which helps Christians in the Holy Land. Your support helps the Church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools, offer religious education and preserve the sacred shrines. The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians and in these times of crisis; this collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. Through your contribution, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land. For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, please visit www.myfranciscan.org/goodfriday. Please be generous.
