Catherine of Siena by Sigrid Undset

SAINT CATHERINE OF SIENA (1347-1380)
April 29

Imagine the pope receiving a young woman still in her twenties who addresses him as "my sweet Christ on earth," then orders: "Get back to Rome where you belong!" Amazingly, Gregory XI complied! Yet this was but one astonishing incident in the extraordinary life of Catherine of Siena, a truly unique medieval woman. Youngest of twenty-five children, Catherine refused marriage and became a Dominican Tertiary at sixteen, cloistering herself at home in contemplative prayer, austere penances, and mystical experiences, culminating in "spiritual espousal" to Christ. Then, incarnating the Dominican ideal of "passing on to others the fruits of contemplation," Catherine left her solitude to care for the poor, nurse the sick, comfort the dying, and bury the dead. Increasingly renowned for converting souls and healing bodies, she was sought after to broker peace during civil wars and Church schisms. All this, and like Jesus, whom she called "my Divine Spouse," she died at thirty-three! Four hundred letters and her spiritual classic The Dialogue inspired Paul VI to name her, together with Teresa of Ávila, the first women Doctors of the Church.—Peter Scagnelli, Copyright © J. S.  Car Wash for your Soul!

Yes, seriously! It is actually one of the safest ways to still continue with making the Sacrament available at this time. It is certainly not ideal but it can work so you can still receive the Sacrament. The Archdiocese in their new guidelines suggests this as a possibility.
 How it works?
 All regularly scheduled private confession times will now be outside. I will set up a chair in the parking lot. Just look for me.

(I'll be in my car if it is raining).

When it is your turn drive up while maintaining the recommended 6 feet distance.
 Other cars should stay back until their turn so as not to hear what is said.
 If there are several people in the same car such as kids, you can park and walk up to me one by one while maintaining the six feet distance between us for both of our safety.
(Bring an umbrella just in case!)
 Thanks for your patience and understanding during these difficult times.

Scam notice

As you probably know, people will be receiving monetary funds from the government due to the Coronavirus. There is a scam in which someone is calling saying they are from the government and asking for personal information in regards to this monetary matter. It is a scam so please don't give away personal information over the phone from anyone claiming to be from the government or the Church either.
 Thank you, Father Clayton
