WORLD DAY OF PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

On Sunday, May 12, the Catholic Church asks us to pray for an increase in vocations to the priesthood and religious life. Just as Jesus encountered Simon and Andrew, asking them to leave their nets and follow him, he asks the same of us. The Lord's call to the priesthood or religious life is not a burden, but a loving invitation to assist him in his mission. This week, please pray that those who Christ is calling will not be afraid, but will trust in his plan for them which will bring more joy fulfillment than they could imagine.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 22ND – SEMINARIAN TRIVIA NIGHT

You are invited to form a team of 8 to compete in an exciting trivia game which will feature our seminarians. The fun begins May 22 at 6:15pm at St. Michael the Archangel in Leawood. A table of 8 is $300 and included finger foods and soft drinks. Seminarians will rotate as the 9th player on various teams, making this a fun way to meet the guys discerning the priesthood. The 1st and 2nd place teams will win gift cards and a private Mass celebrated by one of the newly ordained priests. The best decorated table wins 8 reserved seats at the priesthood ordination on May 25. The vocation office encourages teams to include young men in high school and college for this fun night. During halftime the six men to be ordained priests will be given a short tribute by Fr. Scott Wallisch. Please register by May 20th, by going online to kckvocations.com under the Events tab or email vocation@archkck.org.

Marriage Minute

At a crowded playground, somehow mothers are able to discern their own child's cries. Likewise, when a mom shouts, "Time to go!" her own child knows he has been summoned. This is the type of intimate familiarity that Jesus wants with us when he says, "My sheep hear my voice," and the kind that husbands and wives should have with one another. Married couples can intentionally grow in this kind of unity by: • Learning to share feelings in a way that makes them feel connected. • Developing a healthy way to come together on issues and make decisions. • Appreciating the other's unique masculinity or femininity. These skills are all taught in an upcoming course called Every Day in Love. Sign up today and make it a Mother's Day gift! www.archkck.org/everyday

May is Mental Health Awareness Month.

According to the National Institute of Health, in a given year about one in four people have a diagnosable mental health condition. As a faith community, we are called to support individuals and their families who have mental health concerns. We can offer spiritual comfort through our prayerful presence in people's lives by acknowledging their pain and supporting them through the healing and recovery process. If you would like more information about what you can do to support people with mental illness and their families in your parish, contact the Special Needs Ministry at 913.647.3054 or by email: tracunas@archkck.org.

Pilgrimage of the little sisters and brothers Thank you for the help with the Mass and meal at the Park this past Sunday! The Archbishop, little sisters and brothers, pilgrims, and friends had a wonderful time. The Lord blessed us with good weather too. Two St. Philippine statues were sent home with the little sisters and little brothers for each of their little monasteries.

Archbishop Thank You!

A St. Philippine statue was given to Archbishop Naumann and also to Archbishop Emeritus Keleher. Here are the words from Archbishop Naumann on behalf of them both:

"Dear Fr. Clayton and Parishioners of Sacred Heart, Thank you for the beautiful statues of St. Rose Philippine Duchesne. Archbishop Keleher and I are most grateful for your kindness and thoughtfulness during this most holy season. St. Rose Philippine Duchesne holds a particularly special place in my heart because she spent time near and in my hometown of St. Louis. As the patron saint of perseverance amid adversity, she is particularly relevant to our Church in these times. I welcome the 'woman who prays always' in my home. With the assurance of my prayers for all of you, I am, Sincerely yours in Jesus, the Lord of Life, Archbishop Joseph Naumann."
