TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The cathedral is a treasure in a diocese and in our tradition. It is not simply a “big church,” as some say; some parish churches are larger. What makes a cathedral is the presence of the chair, called a cathedra (Latin for seat) reserved for the bishop.

There are many instances in our country of a local church (diocese) outgrowing a cathedral. In Baltimore and St. Louis, the former cathedrals are historic treasures in the heart of the old city, but new and larger structures now function as the seat of the bishop.

When a bishop dies or retires, it is said that “the seat is vacant,” and when the new bishop is installed, the central ritual is the moment when the decree of the Holy Father is read and the new bishop is escorted to the cathedra. No one but the bishop sits in the cathedra during a ritual, but in Los Angeles the cathedra in the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels is accessible, and no one seems to mind when a visitor tries the cathedra out for the bishop’s point of view.

ACTIONS

Actions speak louder than words; let your words teach and your actions speak.—St. Anthony of Padua

PROMISES

Today’s liturgy is full of promises. The reading from Genesis promises a final triumph over the power of sin and a return to a new creation. The reading from Second Corinthians promises that all who follow Christ will have to struggle. It also promises, however, that we can persevere if we but recognize that Christ is within us, renewing us daily, and giving us the courage and the strength we need to endure. The Gospel promises that doing God’s will makes us “family” with Jesus, who forgives all sin and triumphs over evil.

Today might be a good day for us to make some promises as well. We can promise to stop kidding ourselves about our own tendencies to selfishness and sin. We can promise ourselves to believe—really believe—that while we are not sinless, we are forgiven. We can promise ourselves to combat evil and sin by acting as sisters and brothers not only to the Lord, but to one another as well.

Marriage Minute The Blame Game

Have you ever had a dream where you are naked in front of a big crowd? This fear of being exposed seems to go all the way back to the Garden. This weekend we hear Adam and Eve facing God in the wake of the first sin. Being unable to hide, they try another approach... blame. You can just picture Adam pointing at Eve, and Eve pointing at the snake!

Marriage is a call back to the Garden to begin again, now with Jesus’ help and mercy. • Commit to being totally honest with your spouse. • Admit your faults quickly. • Ask and grant forgiveness sincerely. • Make frequent use of the sacrament of Reconciliation.

SERVING OTHERS IN GOD'S LOVE: RELIGIOUS FREEDOM WEEK 2018

The recent, narrow victory to protect adoption choice in Kansas reminds us how much work we have left to educate the faithful and the general public about the need to safeguard religious freedom and conscience protection. For as John Adams observed, “Liberty once lost, is lost forever.”

The US Bishops have asked that you please consider educating your people about Religious Freedom issues during Religious Freedom Week June 22-29 by sharing the attached “one pager” bulletin insert.

For updates and resources visit: www.usccb.org/ReligiousFreedomWeek

Please submit bulletin announcements to cvitt@MiamiLinnCatholics.org by Tuesday at 12pm.
