Marriage Minute

Ascension What does the future hold? We ask this question a great deal. Will it bring fortune? Will it bring suffering? In many ways, we can lose our focus on what matters by worrying about the future. Jesus recognizes this temptation in his disciples as he ascends into heaven. Focus on the coming of the Holy Spirit, and everything else will take care of itself. Whether things are going great or we are experiencing struggles in marriage, we can apply the same advice. Try the following:
• First, ask the Holy Spirit to be more present in your life and marriage.
• Ignore distractions like cell phones and television, and spend intentional time with your spouse.
• Share daily with your spouse one experience of God from that day. Prayer is the key to fuel this awareness. Explore “Foundation” at www.JoyfulMarriageProject.com

Religious Freedom Rally JUNE 30th.

The Archdiocese of Kansas City in Kansas Offices for Pro-Life and Social Justice are collaborating with Faithful Citizens and FIAT to host a Religious Freedom Rally on Sunday, June 30, at Ascension Catholic Church (127th Street in Overland Park). This event will conclude the U.S. Church’s Religious Freedom Week promoted by the US bishops to bring people together to “pray, reflect, and take action on religious liberty, both here in this country and abroad”. Archbishop Naumann will celebrate the 11:45am Mass at Ascension Church followed by a hotdog lunch in the Parish Hall or under “the big top!” The religious freedom rally will begin at 1:30 pm. The day will consist of an old-fashioned, patriotic ice cream social with “under the tent” presentation by speakers on religious liberty issues. There will be informational booths sponsored by religious freedom organizations including Faithful Citizens, FIAT, Kansans for Life, etc. Carnival games and food will be provided to entertain friends and families.

“I am the Alpha and the Omega, the first and the last, the beginning and the end.”— Revelation 22:13

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

The paschal candle, blessed at the Easter Vigil, carried in procession into the darkened church, and aflame with the light of Christ to be passed hand to hand to renew our baptism, burns for the fifty days of Easter whenever we gather as Christ’s risen body. In the last fifty years, we have grown to see this candle as the sign of Christ’s enduring presence with us. Before then, it was often seen more as a kind of sign-post pointing backwards to events in Christ’s life. Therefore, in some places, on the fortieth day after Easter, in order to portray the disappearance of Jesus at the Ascension, the candle was hidden.

Now we see the paschal candle as a sign of the great baptismal season of grace and it remains in a prominent place throughout the entire fifty days. We do know of some churches that did not hide the candle after the Ascension. In England before the Reformation, the candle was left in place for fifty days, since on Pentecost Eve there was a vigil, and the candle was used to consecrate the waters of the font. In Salisbury cathedral, the candle was thirty-six feet high, and in Westminster Abbey weighed over three hundred pounds. On Pentecost, the candles were melted to make tapers for the funerals of the poor.
