Pastor's note:
 Greetings to all!,
 As we begin back with Masses during the weekend and weekday, please know that you are welcome but do not have to come if you decide it would be best not to at this time. The obligation for Sunday/Saturday eve Mass is still lifted by Archbishop until further notice. If you are at risk you may want to consider still staying at home. Those who are sick please do stay home as well as anyone exposed to the coronavirus recently. For those that come, please wear a mask (outdoor Mass perhaps not needed but still can do so). We will have some extra masks available if needed at Church. Please social distance from other households by staying 6 feet away at all times including going and coming, seating, and at Communion. If you would like to receive Communion, you can remove your mask while the person in front of you receives. Be careful not to touch the middle of the mask where germs can be. After you have received Communion you can step to the side and place your mask on and then return to your pew. People can go pew by pew in a single line for Communion. Please depart pew by pew starting from the back when leaving. The collection basket will be at the back that you can drop a donation in coming or going. Thank you for your support. You can bring a mis-salette Mass guide of your own or use your phone to follow along with the Mass. If you have any extra cleaning supplies, we may have a need for them with cleaning the Church. Thank you and God bless us all!
 Sincerely,
 Father Clayton

Gabriel Project – Volunteer Information Opportunity
 The Gabriel Project, the Archdiocesan "Walking With Moms" Ministry, will be holding a virtual informational meeting using Zoom for all women interested in becoming an "Angel" for the ministry. An Angel is someone who works directly with pregnant women in need -- listening, guiding, and helping them access the resources they need in order to choose life for their child. The Angel also connects the woman with the parish to provide a community of support and love, when often she has none.
 This meeting will take place Thursday, June 18th at 6:30 pm, and will provide information to help you discern if this is a volunteer role that is right for you. If interested, please contact Ann Marie Alvey at director@gabrielprojectkc.com.
