PROJECT CHRYSALIS

Every great grief conceals a great grace. Project Chrysalis is a new Catholic ministry designed to help parents who have lost a child find hope through Sacred Scripture and community, all while adhering to teaching of the Magisterium. While this ministry is not a bereavement group, our mission is to offer support and hope through scripture in a time of transformation. The inaugural meeting will be held on Monday, October 22, 2018 in the St. Luke's Room at Church of the Ascension, 9500 W. 127th St. in Overland Park. For more information, contact Ken or Patty Billinger at 913-634-4210 or email kbillinger@archkck.org. You can also find more information on our website – www.lcapostolate.org/project-chrysalis or on our Facebook page - @projectchrysaliskc. The group is open to parents from all parishes.

The evening includes a pre-event reception, dinner and a live band. For registration information, visit www.cefks.org or call 913.721.1574. Marriage Minute

How far should we go? In marriage, sin can be easy to spot... in our spouse! In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus gets really serious about sin, and, therefore, he raises the bar on how far we should go to root out sin. If our marriages are the most important relationship on earth, it is worth taking a look at how we can root out sins against our spouse: • Switch to a flip phone or use accountability software to keep from looking at inappropriate websites, or even just to keep your phone from becoming a distraction. • Intentionally flood your relationship with affirmation to correct a habit of criticism. • Withdraw from activities that make too many demands on family time or Sunday Mass. • Set reminders for yourself to do the things that make your spouse feel loved to avoid taking him/her for granted.

Renowned Composer Fr. Ricky Manalo Unfolds Music Creation in Today's Church at USM's Theology Lecture 7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 9

Annunciation Chapel - USM Campus (Leavenworth, Kan.)—The University of Saint Mary department of theology & pastoral ministry presents "Tune, Text, and Theology: Composing for Today's Church" with renowned liturgical composer and Paulist priest Ricky Manalo for USM's annual Theology Lecture at 7 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 9, in Annunciation Chapel on the university's Leavenworth campus, 4100 South 4th Street. The presentation is free and open to the public. Seating is limited, so early arrival is recommended.

Fr. Manalo will unfold what goes on in the mind of a liturgical composer, while bringing to life the creative and theological processes behind his music. The accomplished musician will ask the audience to join him in song, while accompanied by flutist Jordan Lee Buckner and singers Alexis Meyers and Kylie Visocky.

Recognized for pioneering and popularizing Asian Catholic liturgical music in the U.S., Fr. Manalo has presented across the globe and been named the leading authority on intercultural liturgical issues and music. His best-known works include "By the Waking of Our Hearts," "Many and Great," and "Ang Katawan Ni Kristo" (Filipino: "The Body of Christ"), and his incredible music has been heard throughout the world during papal Masses of John Paul II, Benedict XVI, and Francis. Recently, his work was recognized by the National Association of Pastoral Musicians, honoring him with "2018 Pastoral Musician of the Year Award."

Fr. Manalo currently teaches graduate-level pastoral ministries at Santa Clara University, and he also serves as the main facilitator of the Cultural Orientation Program for International Ministers/Priests at Loyola Marymount University. He studied composition and piano at the Manhattan School of Music, theology at the Washington Theological Union, and liturgy, culture, and sociology at the Graduate Theological Union, Berkeley, Calif. A reception with Fr. Manalo will immediately follow the presentation in the Social Room. For more information on the lecture, email Dr. Amanda Quantz, USM professor of theology, at Amanda.Quantz@stmmary.edu or visit stmmary.edu/Lecture.

Mental Health Awareness Week October 7 - October 13, 2018

Pope Francis has been very open about his mental health treatment received in the 1970s. It's not surprising that our holy Pontiff has the confidence to share his need for support and guidance from a mental health professional. Pope Francis is the world's most sought out Religious leader. His simplicity, humility, and transparency is the model for reducing guilt and stigma that obstruct the graces of God's healing. Please join us in the celebration of Mass as we pray for a united, compassionate community, and to ease the burdens of stress, grief, loss, depression, and anxiety. October 6, 2018 8:00 A.M.
