Marriage Minute

If you were building a house, you would first take stock of your resources and determine how best to prioritize your efforts. This week, Jesus reminds us that our discipleship works in the same way. If you are married, you live your discipleship out in the concrete circumstances of your marriage and family life. Prioritizing your marriage is not a "nice extra," but rather, the way in which you prove your love for God. Sometimes that can mean sacrificing outside activities in order to be more intentional at home. Start with simple things: Home for dinner together as a family • Screens off when you are with your spouse and children • Pray with your spouse and children • Hold your tongue on criticism and notice the positive For concrete strategies on how to prioritize your marriage, check out the marriage course starting on Sept 12 at Ascension: www.archkck.org/everyday.

OCTOBER RESPECT LIFE MONTH RESOURCES

October is Respect Life Month when the Church asks us to pray and reflect more deeply on the dignity of each human life. The USCCB provides resources to help our parishes, schools, families and ministries to share the Gospel of Life during this month and throughout the year. They have chosen "Christ Our Hope in Every Season of Life" as this year's theme. This week, a packet of materials will be mailed to your parish to help you celebrate Respect Life Month. The online version can be found at www.respectlife.org/october. In it you will find a number of resources, such as images and graphics, sample timelines, homily helps, intercessions, and bulletin announcements on various Life topics, that you can adapt as needed for your specific parish, school or ministry. Please help us promote Respect Life Sunday which is observed the first Sunday of October, with the following bulletin announcement. Each October the Church in the United States celebrates Respect Life Month, and the first Sunday of October is observed as Respect Life Sunday. Please join us for a special celebration with Archbishop Naumann. Sunday, October 6 at 11:30 a.m. Holy Trinity Catholic Church 13615 W. 92nd Street, Lenexa KS As Catholics, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, from the beginning of life to its end, and at every point in between. During the month of October, the Church asks us to reflect more deeply on the dignity of every human life.
